NO FAVORITISM.

Detailed Army and Navy Officers Will Have to Go.

Special to the Sentinel.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—The Army and Navy officers who have been loading around Washington during the past year on "petticoat influence," are alarmed beyond measure at the stand taken by Secretaries Whitney and Endicott. There is one consolation, however, the dancing receptions are over, and if they are ordered back to their proper stations there will not be much going on here in a social way before next winter. It is wonderful how much of a storm either the Secretary of the Navy or the Secretary of War can raise by simply ordering an officer to resume active duties on the field or at sea. For several years a young Assistant Paymaster in the Navy was a prominent figure on the avenue. He was rather a handsome fellow, dressed exquisitely, danced superbly, and was an adept in the small and brainless talk of the average society gentleman. It was always a wonder to many how the young dandy escaped "sea service." Petticoat influence, however, did it. Secretary Chandler, however, one day issued an order sending him to China, and at once there was a howl in society. Petitions from the society leaders poured in by the hundreds asking Mr. Chandler to countermand his order, but to no purpose, and now the elegant young man is sharing pot luck with his fellow officers.

Both Secretary Whitney and Secretary Endicott declare that they are not going to show any favoritism, and that no officer shall be allowed to remain on duty at the Capital simply because he has political or social influence.

The President's Invitations to Visit Places.

Special to the Sentinel.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—The President stated to the Sentinel correspondent this afternoon that he had received scores of invitations to visit various places during the summer. He said he did not think he would leave the city for more than three weeks at any period this year, if at all. He was kindly disposed toward going to Atlanta, but had not as yet determined upon it.

Seymour Items.

Special to the Sentinel.

SEYMOUR, Ind., April 2.—The boiler in George Hult's saw mill, situated some ten miles northeast of this city, exploded with terrific force last evening. The building was badly wrecked. One man, whose name was not learned, was torn to pieces, being killed instantly; and several others were very seriously injured, some of whom it is thought can not recover. The cause of the explosion has not been ascertained.

Sheriff W. J. Shrode, of Pike County, arrived here to-day with Cyrus Stull, whom he was taking to Nashville, Brown County, his former home, where he is wanted on the charge of perjury.

The weather the past three days has been delightful, which gladdens the hearts of the farmers who are pushing their spring work.

Terrific Explosion of Powder.

St. Louis, April 2.—A St. Joseph, Mo., special to the Post-Dispatch says: "At 4 o'clock this morning the powder magazine of the Hazard Powder Company was struck by lightning and exploded. In the magazine were eight and one-half tons of powder. It was situated about three miles north of the city. The detonation was heard fifteen miles away. The shock was terrific. All the houses in the vicinity were partially wrecked. Window panes were shattered all over the city to a distance of four miles from the magazine, and houses shook and swayed as if moved by an earthquake. There was much excitement in the city till the cause of the disturbance was learned. No one seriously injured."

Embezzlers Arrested.

SPRINGFIELD, April 2.—James E. Chandler, President, and John B. Clemings, Cashier, of the First National Bank at Bushnell, have been arrested and brought here, charged with having embezzled $90,000 or more of the bank's funds. The investigation of the bank's affairs has not yet been completed, but it is expected the shortage will exceed the amount named.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 2.—James I. White, charged with the embezzlement of $8,000 in Milwaukee city bonds, was arrested at Niles, Mich., this morning, while on his way to Canada.

An Iron Bridge Crashed by Ice.

PITTSBURGH, April 2.—A special from Parkers, Pa., says: "The ice in the Allegheny River gorged into huge mountains against the iron bridge here, last night, and at 8 p. m. the structure gave way under the terrible pressure and two sections were swept down the river. It was reported that several persons were on the bridge when it went down, but the rumor has not been verified. No one is believed to have been injured. At this point (Pittsburgh) the river is clear of ice, and coal shippers are preparing for a large shipment of coal to Southern ports."

Generally Expected Bonds Will Finish the Fiscal Year.

Special to the Sentinel.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—The impression that S. P. Rounds will hold on to the Government Printer'ship until the close of the fiscal year, June 30, is quite general. The hotel gossip concedes that John B. Stoll will be named as his successor. Mr. Rounds has had several interviews with the President recently, and it is asserted that he asked to be allowed to finish out the fiscal year, when he would tender his resignation.

Pronounced Utterly False.

CLEVELAND, O., April 2.—A close friend of Mrs. Garfield has furnished the following to the Associated Press: "The report that has been extensively circulated that Mrs. Garfield is to be married undoubtedly originated from some malicious person who wished to annoy her, as it has been authoritatively ascertained that the rumor is utterly false, having no foundation whatever. Mrs. Garfield has only recently heard of it. She still wears mourning, and matrimony has no place in her thoughts."

The War Secretary's Private Secretary.

Special to the Sentinel.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Colonel Barr, of the army, was Secretary Lincoln's private secretary. He still retains his position, but there is a strong pressure being brought in army circles to have him removed. Secretary Endicott has known Colonel Barr a number of years, both being Massachusetts men, and the latter's friends are confident of his retention in office. The position is a good one, and there are many applicants for it.

Matson's Recommendations.

Special to the Sentinel.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Colonel C. C. Matson, of the Fifth District, has recommended the following candidates for postoffices in his bailiwick:

South Bethany, John M. Hawkins.
Jopps, A. J. Brown.
Pittsboro, Laura J. Edwards.
Bluff Creek, Jas. N. Robinson.
Centerston, John W. Richardson.
Barnard, Noah H. Bartlett.

Sullivan and McCaffrey.

PHILADELPHIA, April 2.—A warrant for the arrest of John L. Sullivan and Dominick McCaffrey, who were advertised to fight to-night, was issued by Judge Phil, this morning, and placed in the hands of an officer for execution. They were charged with conspiring to commit a breach of the peace.

Fast Trains.

PITTSBURGH, April 2.—Two more fast trains will be placed on the Pennsylvania Railroad next Sunday. They will make through runs from New York and Philadelphia to Chicago on the same fast time as the limited express.

Hard on Sheep.

WAYNESBORO, Pa., April 2.—It is estimated that 40,000 sheep have died in this county in the last three months from the scarcity of feed and the unusual severity of the weather.

National Bank Closed.

NORFOLK, April 2.—The Exchange National Bank of this city, closed its doors this morning. The cause and consequences can not be ascertained as yet.

Illinois Senatorial Vote.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 2.—In the Joint Assembly 44 Senators and 135 Representatives answered the roll call. Logan received two votes. Adjourned.

The River Rising at Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURGH, April 1.—A rise in the river sufficient to permit the shipment within the next forty-eight hours of about 7,000,000 bushels of coal to lower points, has greatly strengthened the position of the striking miners. They now expect that orders will be given them by the operators to commence work very shortly on the three-cent basis. In the fourth pool four non-unionists joined the strikers to-day. Along the railroad the outlook is not so favorable.

The Report comes from several sections that the men are weakening, and in a number of places have returned to work at the old price. A prominent labor leader said this afternoon that the strike will not be continued. The miners have made a good fight and the operators, he thinks, would grant the three-cent rate, but the low rate of mines in the Ohio districts makes it impossible to do so.

Summary of Crop Prospects.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 1.—The Live Stock Indicator to-morrow will publish a summary of reports of the condition of winter wheat in Kansas, Western Missouri and Southern Nebraska. These will show that in Kansas the acreage sown is 20 per cent. below the previous year, and in most of the larger wheat-producing counties the condition is quoted poor or very poor, and from 25 to 35 per cent. of the acreage sown will be plowed now, leaving the dry weather and the late start of the season as the cause. In Western Missouri the situation is almost identical with that above. Southern Nebraska reports are much more encouraging, though the per cent. of acreage to be plowed appears quite large. Abundant warm rains soon will do much to brighten the prospects, while without it they will rapidly become worse.

The Oklahoma Roomers.

ARKANSAS CITY, April 1.—Captain Couch held a meeting to-day, which was largely attended. A series of resolutions were passed denouncing the action of Senators Plumb and Ingalls in opposing the settlement of Oklahoma. Colonel Crocker returned from Washington, and reported he had organized a branch colony there, consisting of 100 members, who are ready to join Couch whenever he deems it desirable to begin his march. Unless word is received from Washington, the march will be postponed until the next of the week, calling together the members for a day of departure. The Texas boomers returned by Major "Cox" and on their way to Caldwell via Fort Reno, under escort of the military.

Valuable Horses Injured by a Car Jumping the Track.

CINCINNATI, April 1.—The passenger train from Louisville, on the Louisville and Nashville Railway, way, due at Newport, Ky., at 7:10 this evening, had, besides full passenger cars, an express car in which were three thoroughbred trotters: Algonquin, Kentucky, and Kentucky. The train, worth $17,500, and six valuable work horses, all en route to Brooklyn. This car jumped the track at Newport, Ky., and ran over the horses so as to render them worthless. Not a passenger was hurt. The baggage car was completely wrecked, and the postal car was knocked out. Two postal clerks and four others, all train men, were slightly injured.

The Wives of Turkish Soldiers.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 1.—The government is in arrears to the soldiers for several months pay, and to-day the wives of the soldiers attempted to secure attention to their husbands' demands by appearing in force at the office of the Minister of Finance. About 2,000 of them marched in a body, defied the police, and made a rush for the Minister, who only escaped by jumping out of a back window.

A Patent Office Order.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Commissioner Sparks, of the Land Office, has made an order that no cases heretofore made special shall be acted upon until they have been resubmitted in the regular order of examination. This order does not include cases already approved for patent, and in such cases patents may issue.

Safe-Blowing Burglars.

WINNAP, Ind., April 1.—Burglars entered the store of M. D. Falvey & Co., at this place, last night, blew open the safe and decamped with $115. In their haste the thieves overlooked a pocket book containing several hundred dollars. No clue.

The French Cabinet.

LONDON, April 1.—A dispatch from Paris, received here this morning, reports that M. De Freycinet has now accepted President Grevy's offer and will form a new Cabinet immediately.

"The Old Spirit."

CHARLOTTE (S. C.) News, March 21.—The officers of the United States Army, instructing him to protect American interests in the United States of Colombia during the present disturbed condition of that country, and particularly to recover possession by force, if necessary, of vessels belonging to American citizens which have been seized by the insurgents, will have the approval of the whole country. What is most wanted in the navy and in the country now is a revival of the prompt and determined spirit which was expressed in the dispatch of Admiral Tamm, and other officers who have made the American Navy respected and famous in the olden time. There are men of the same stamp in the navy to-day, and all they need is the opportunity to assert themselves and the rights and authority of the people they represent, instead of being taught by the weakness of the Government to avoid responsibility and danger. It may take the present Administration a considerable time to give the American people the ships they need, but the men are already here. It requires no time to build, or equip, or fortify, or reinforce the officers and men of the navy. If the Government will only permit them to stand up for the rights of Americans everywhere, the name of American citizen will soon be made as respected and respectable again as it was under the last Democratic Administration, a quarter of a century ago. Such a policy is as far removed from braggadocio, of course, as it is from pusillanimity. It contemplates simply the broad, manly, and unselfish assertion of the rights of an American to be treated with as much respect everywhere as an Englishman is treated, and for the same reason—that he has his Government behind him, and that the flag which floats over him means that in time of need he will have all the help and protection, and, if need be, the retribution that can come from the combined hearts, brains, and pockets of 60,000,000 people.

The Death Watch.

(Boston Herald.)

The New York newspapers have set on General Grant what they term the death watch. He may die at any moment, and he may be alive three months hence. But whenever he does die the newspapers must instantly have the news, hence the death watch must watch the house for the newspapers all the time. The chief papers have therefore hired a convenient room close to the Grant residence, and there all day and all night sit a group of reporters waiting for General Grant to die. They have books, and a card-table, and the daily newspapers, and whatever occurs to them may be of aid to help pass away the weary hours. They are well paid for their trouble, and among them are some of the most trustworthy newspaper men in the city. It is very responsible work, and men who are of irregular habits are not selected for it. At stated hours in the day and night the Grant mansion is visited, and Colonel Fred Grant tells the reporters how the General has passed the preceding hours. Twice a day and just before midnight the physicians are seen, and they tell the reporters the condition of their distinguished patient. The work speedily becomes reduced to a system, and the plan renders both the family and the physicians much more freedom than when the bell was rung twenty-five times a day by the Representatives of the press in pursuit of information. The newspaper headquarters in Grant's case has become noted already, and is bound to become more so as time runs on. Probably it will not be kept open so long as was the room in which the reporters waited so long for the death of Commodore Vanderbilt. There the watch was kept up for just seven months, and a jolly time indeed the boys had. The room became a club room, known to half the newspaper men in town, and they dropped in and out, and played cards, and had a good time generally. Charles O'Connor, too, gave the press of New York much trouble and expense, and ended it by getting well instead of dying. When, years afterward, he died at Nantucket, he got very brief notice. Another notable newspaper man was in the long absence of the jury in the Beecher-Tilton suit. There, too, a room was hired, and the newspaper men all used it while waiting for the verdict that never came. The chief newspapers have obituary notices of General Grant descriptive of his last days, headings, and everything save the bare announcement of death, all set in type and made up, ready to rush out an extra with all possible haste after the fatal moment is announced.

Reunion of the Army of the Potomac.

NEW YORK, March 26.—The annual reunion of the Society of the Army of the Potomac will take place at Baltimore on the 6th and 7th of May. The oration will be delivered by General Calvin E. Pratt, Justice of the New York Supreme Court, and a poem by Major Dewitt C. Sprague, of Washington. The officers of the society for the current year are: General U. S. Grant, U. S. A., President; Brigadier General M. J. Mahon, Treasurer; Brigadier General Horatio C. King, Recording Secretary; and Brigadier General George A. Sharpe, Corresponding Secretary.

A Radical Change of Tune.

(Boston Journal.)

"I went into the White House," said a returned "bread-and-butter" politician, "whistling 'Behold, the Conquering Hero Comes,' and after a brief interview with G. O. I came out chanting 'My heart bowed down in weight of woe!'"

Phelps Gets Bare Justice.

(Albany Times.)

When we consider the devotion which a Democrat must feel to his political principles, to have remained faithful so many years in Vermont, Mr. Phelps' reward is by no means too great.

It is painful and annoying to be disturbed in public assemblies by some one coughing or sneezing, especially when you know that there is a remedy like Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup easily to be obtained.

Lifted Up

A happy surprise it was to Mr. A. R. Norton, of Bristol, Conn., when ATALOPHOROS put him on his feet, and sent him cheerfully about his business. Let him tell his own story:

"About three weeks ago I was taken with a severe attack in the back. For four days I was unable to turn in bed without help, and when lifted up could stand on my feet. I was induced to try ATALOPHOROS, after all the usual remedies failed. In 30 minutes after taking the first dose I could bear my weight upon my feet. In two days I was able to get about and attend to business. In two other cases which have come to my knowledge its use has been attended with the same results."

A poor man in Philadelphia had to borrow a dollar to buy a bottle of ATALOPHOROS. On account of his poverty his name shall remain a secret. He had suffered terribly from Rheumatism. He gratefully writes:

"I took my first dose Tuesday afternoon, and on Wednesday, after but seven doses, I had not a sharp or severe ache left. Then I reduced the dose one-half and took the remainder of the bottle. I was able to be steady at work till Sunday, when I took a severe cold and was unable to use my left hand. I purchased another bottle and by bed-time I found relief. The medicine is all you claim for it."

Investigate ATALOPHOROS all you please! Find all the fault you choose with it! and yet the fact remains, that it is doing what no other medicine ever could do for Rheumatism and Neuralgia.

If you cannot get ATALOPHOROS of your druggist, we will send it express paid, on receipt of regular price—one dollar per bottle. We warrant that you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it, do not be persuaded to try something else, but order at once from us as directed.
